

QBE LMI appoints Senior Manager, People & Culture

17 February 2010 -- QBE Lenders' Mortgage Insurance Limited (QBE LMI) has announced the appointment of Zali Rogers as Senior Manager, People & Culture.

Reporting to Chief Executive Officer Ian Graham, Zali will lead QBE LMI's human resources and culture and capability development initiatives.

Congratulating Zali on her appointment, Ian Graham said "Zali's extensive knowledge of human resources and organisational development disciplines makes her a valuable addition to the QBE LMI team. I am delighted to have her on board and look forward to working with her in implementing our people, culture, and talent management strategies."

Zali brings with her over 12 years experience in human resources, gained predominantly within the financial services sector. She joins QBE LMI from Skandia, where she moved through the ranks of the corporation's human resources department to become Head of Human Resources. In her time there, Zali assisted with the development and implementation of Skandia's human resources framework and strategies.

Zali, commenting on her appointment said "I am excited with my new role at QBE LMI, and am looking forward to supporting the company and its people in the continued growth and development of the business."
